

I am in support of XM providing local traffic and weather. Usually you are only able to look at TV before you leave home to hear and see what the weather and traffic is going to be like during the day. XM provides this service 24/7 and it is wonderful to those driving and commuting all day.